

Tarn Hows

& Waterfall Hiking Trail

Starting in the picturesque village of Coniston, ramble through the peaceful Tarn Hows Wood, to one of the most beautiful tarns in the Lake District National Park, Tarn Hows. This moderate hike has an optional detour to the majestic Tom Ghyll waterfall. Pack some sandwiches and make a stop at the picnic area above the Tarn, the views of the Cumbrian fells are spectacular!

THE COPPERMINES
LAKES COTTAGES

COPPERMINES OFFICE & HIDDEN TREASURES GIFT SHOP YOU ARE HERE

Wavy bench rest point

Optional stop off at Tom Gill waterfall

Tarn Hows viewpoint & picnic area

- Hiking Trail from Coppermines Office & Hidden Treasures Gift Shop
- Diversion to Tom Ghyll waterfall

Tarn Hows Hiking Trail

Difficulty: moderate

Distance: 6.8miles / 11km

Approximate time: 3 hours